Dresden, August 16, N. S.

HIS Polish Majesty set out for Warsaw last Night, attended by the Vice-Chancellor Lipsky, his Great Chamberlain Count Frise, M. Briel, and some few others. His Majesty intends to go by the Way of Great Poland, and stop a Day or two at Carge, upon the Frontiers. The Marquels de Fleury and M. Tioli will follow the Beginning of next Week. Count Hoym is excused this Journey, provided his Majesty returns so soon as Christmas, which he has Thoughts of doing, to be present at a Diet in Saxony the Beginning of the ensuing Year.

Windsor-Castle, August 24.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Sir Philip Medows, Kt. and the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Middleton, the Office of Comptrollers for the Accompts of the Army.

His Majesty has been pleased to present Daniel De Bat, A. M. to the Rectory of Holdenby in the County of Northampton and Diocese of Peterborough, void by the Death of Mr. Daniel Amiand.

Windsor-Castle, August 10, 1730.

Whereas two Letters, one subscribed Jon. H. and Tho. J. dated the 5th Instant, and the other subscribed Jon. Resolute, dated the 7th, have been received, by the Penny-Post, by Nathaniel Gould, Esq; one of the Directors of the Bank of England, directed to him at his House in Crosby-Square in Bishopsgate-street, requiring him to come alone to Constitution-Hill and leave Ten Guineas in a Purse under three Bricks which he should find together, within three Yards of the Corner of the Wall of her Grace the Dutchess of Buckingham's Garden, and threatning, in Case of Refusal, or of endeavouring to betray the Person that should come to see if the Money were there, pursuant to their Demand that he the said Nathaniel Gould should not long survive. His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in sending the said Letters, or either of them, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the said Nathaniel Gould does hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons who sent, or contrived or directed the sending of the said Letters, or either of them, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive as a Reward, the Sum of Fifty Pounds of him the said Nathaniel Gould.

Nat. Gould.

Whitehall, Aug. 4, 1730.

Whereas a Sum not exceeding Fifteen Hundred Pounds was granted to His Majesty in the last Session of Parliament, upon Account of one Year's Pensions from the 25th Day of December 1729, to be allowed to the Widows of such Half Pay Officers of the Land Forces, as served and were married before the 25th Day of December 1716. Now to the End that a proper List may be prepared for His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual for the Distribution of the said Sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds, It is His Majesty's Pleasure, That all such Widows as shall desire to partake thereof, as entitled by the Descriptions above mentioned, shall and do before the 29th Day of September next, bring and deliver at the Office of His Majesty's Secretary at War in Whitehall, a Certificate signed by two or more credible Persons, in the Form or to the Effect following, viz.

" We do hereby certify, that we verily believe that A. B. Widow, now residing in is the Widow of who did serve as an Officer of the Land Forces before the 25th of December 1716, and that she was married to him before that Time; and that her said Husband died upon the British Establishment of Half Pay in Quality of on or about the Day of and that to the best of our Belief she still continues the Widow of the said Officer, without any Provision from the
